

INFORMATION REGARDING THE INTER-CENTRE RESEARCH EXCHANGE APPLICATION PROCESS

Full details should be reviewed on the website: <https://www.cirmmt.org/en/funding/inter-centre-research-exchange-funding>

All travel is contingent upon the guidelines listed on McGill's Travel Services website: <https://www.mcgill.ca/travelservices/regulation-and-procedures/travel-regulation>

Mandatory requirements BEFORE travel for McGill students only: complete the Pre-Departure Orientation online course (<https://www.mcgill.ca/mcgillabroad/safety>) and to download and complete the McGill Student Travel Registry app (<https://www.mcgill.ca/mcgillabroad/safety/registry>).

ELIGIBILITY OVERVIEW:

- Graduate student members of CIRMMT are eligible to apply to conduct research within the Centre's mandate at a recognized institution.
- Post-doctoral members and visiting students are not eligible for this funding. Preference in the selection process will be given to doctoral researchers. N.B. To be eligible, students must be enrolled during the full period of the award funding.
- Applicants are encouraged to apply even if their application to the host institution is still pending. Any changes in application status must be communicated immediately with CIRMMT.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENT FUNDING ELIGIBILITY:

CIRMMT values the participation of students in the life of CIRMMT. While there are those who are more officially involved, such as the student representatives and coordinators, those who contribute to the community through other forms of engagement are also valued, and these involvements will be taken into consideration. Such forms of engagement can include, but are not limited to, participation in demonstrations or the more in-depth organization of a CIRMMT workshop.

- In order to be considered eligible for CIRMMT funding, students are expected to attend:
  - EITHER a minimum of 4 out of 6 Distinguished Lectures in the 12 months prior to the application deadline,
  - OR a minimum of 3 out of 6 Distinguished Lectures and significantly contribute to the organization of a CIRMMT workshop along with the RA co-leaders, or in a demonstration during specific special events (e.g., tours of CIRMMT/MMR) in the 12 months prior to the application deadline.
  - NOTE: In both situations above, ONE Distinguished Lecture can be replaced by attending a live@CIRMMT concert.

AWARD:

- CIRMMT will provide up to $2,500 per month, with a maximum award of $5,000 per applicant in support for travel, lodging and living expenses. The minimum length of internship is one month.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

- DEADLINE: March 1st at 4pm, for travel between April 1st and March 31st. If the deadline falls on a weekend, applications will be accepted through to the following Monday at 4pm.
- One complete electronic copy, in a single PDF document, of the form and all additional documents must be submitted to the Centre's Administrative Officer (info@cirmmt.org) by the deadline, and must include:
  - ⇒ Section A: Applicant information
  - ⇒ Section B: A letter of intent from the candidate outlining the purpose of the research internship, its interdisciplinary nature and relevance to CIRMMT's mission.
  - ⇒ Section C: A budget including estimated travel costs, lodging and living expenses.
  - ⇒ Section D: A letter from the CIRMMT sponsor outlining: The academic standing and research capability of the student; the nature of the research project to be carried out during the internship; the relevance of this research to CIRMMT's mandate; the potential of this research internship to contribute to a long-term research collaboration across institutions.
  - ⇒ Section E (template available): A letter from the host institution on official letterhead confirming access for the student to relevant research facilities and a workstation or equivalent for the research project during the internship period.
  - ⇒ An email from the host sponsor, if this is a different person than for Section E, confirming that s/he agrees to the proposed exchange project.
  - ⇒ A complete CV.
  - ⇒ An unofficial transcript (a downloaded version is acceptable).

PLEASE NOTE:

- CIRMMT values concepts of equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) and therefore strongly encourages applicants to consider and reflect upon such concepts when preparing their application for this award. When appropriate, CIRMMT recommends that applicants incorporate these concepts directly into their application text. While CIRMMT will not specifically define EDI, if applicants require some guidance, it is suggested to review the statement and also the past CIRMMT sponsored research & presentations linked to EDI topics, both found on the CIRMMT EDI webpage (<https://www.cirmmt.org/en/about/edi>).

- Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.
- Recipients of this funding must provide a report and brief summary within one month after their exchange has ended.
- Recipients of this funding at non-McGill institutions need to be aware that there are often delays in receiving this award.

Re: Inter-Centre Exchange for [STUDENT NAME]

Dear [CIRMMT DIRECTOR]

The [LAB, UNIVERSITY NAME] agrees to host [STUDENT NAME] as a visiting graduate researcher from [DATES] to [DATES].

For the duration of the exchange, [STUDENT NAME] will be supervised by [NAME(S), TITLE(S)] in [PURPOSE OF RESEARCH].

I confirm that he/she will be integrated into a research team and will be provided the necessary support to carry out his/her research at [LAB, UNIVERSITY NAME], including access to the appropriate laboratories, facilities and research resources for the duration of his/her internship.

Travel, lodging, subsistence and health insurance expenses are the responsibility of the home institution and/or the student researcher, with no financial obligation on the part of the institution that is receiving the researcher.

This residency is for research purposes only and will not be counted as course credit towards a doctoral degree.

Each institution agrees not to use the other's name or logo in publicity without written consent from the senior executive of the other institution or his/her designate.

The Intellectual Property policies in place at each institution will apply to the activities initiated and implemented by the respective researchers.

Sincerely,

[HOST INSTITUTION SIGNATURE]
