

Application for CIRMMT Travel Award

Please read carefully!

You MUST read the eligibility requirements and information available online before completing this application form: <https://www.cirmmt.org/en/funding/travel-awards>

All travel is contingent upon the guidelines listed on McGill's Travel Services website: <https://www.mcgill.ca/travelservices/regulation-and-procedures/travel-regulation>

Graduate student and postdoctoral members of CIRMMT who are presenting their own work at a conference are eligible to apply for the CIRMMT travel award. Applicants must be active student members at the time of the travel award application. Once Convocation has passed you are no longer a student.

Applicants are encouraged to apply even if the paper has not been approved by the conference organizers. In addition, applications for conferences in Montreal are also eligible: since airfare would not be an expense, applicants can apply for conference costs up to a maximum of the lower continental travel award.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. This form has up to 37 questions: You cannot save your progress while completing this form unless you log in with your Microsoft account! Please ensure to save your responses elsewhere to be sure your data is not lost. A PDF copy of the complete form is available on the CIRMMT Travel Award funding page to help you.
2. Once you have submitted this application, please email the additional documents to jacqueline.bednar [AT] mcgill.ca by the appropriate deadline:
  1. Proof of extenuating circumstances for non-attendance at events (lectures, concerts etc.), if applicable.
  2. A copy of the full document submitted to the conference, citing CIRMMT affiliation next to the author's name.
  3. Acceptance notice, if available from conference organizers.
  4. An email from your sponsor approving your application and indicating if s/he will be providing any funding. Note to sponsors: If the sponsor has multiple students, a single email can be submitted for all as long as it includes all the student's names, the conferences they are attending, and how much money it is hoped to provide each student.
  5. For those applying for continental travel ONLY: proof of cheapest flight available (e.g., a query made on Expedia)
3. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.
